

GAMELAN SON OF LION

is a New York based ensemble specializing in new music written by Americans for Javanese instruments. This ten member group plays a variety of gongs and metallophones in two traditional tunings. The instruments were built in America by composer-ethnomusicologist Barbara Benary.

Many of the compositions were written by members of the ensemble, each of whom has been inspired in some way by the sounds and/or structures of Indonesian music.

GAMELAN SON OF LION
presents
a CONCERT
at
JEFFERSON MARKET
REGIONAL BRANCH
425 AVENUE OF THE AMERICAS
NEW YORK, NEW YORK 243-4334
MAY 29, 1982 at 2:00 PM
FREE ADMISSION.....

The New York Public Library

ASTOR, LENOX AND TILDEN FOUNDATIONS

The Gentle Magic of
The Javanese Gamelan

