

Gamelan
Son of Lion

CELEBRATING AMERICAN MUSIC WEEK

THE CATSKILL CONSERVATORY

In association with

SUNY AT ONEONTA AND HARTWICK COLLEGE

presents a Festival on the Theme of

TWO GENERATIONS OF AMERICAN COMPOSERS

featuring

HENRY BRANT, Composer and Conductor, and ROBERT DICK, Composer and Flutist with LINDA BOUCHARD, conductor, LEWIS PAER, contrabass soloist, DAN MARTIN, trombone soloist, Gamelan, Son of Lion, Susquehanna String Band, SUNY-Binghamton Gospel Choir, Ithaca College Brass Ensemble, SUNY-Oneonta Gospel Choir, SUNY-Oneonta Brass Ensemble and the Catskill Chamber Players, with invited guest artists.

CARLETON CLAY, Music Director and trumpet soloist

NOVEMBER 13-17, 1988 -- ONEONTA, NEW YORK

SCHEDULE OF PUBLIC EVENTS

* SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 13. Concert of Spatial Music by Henry Brant, featuring the East Coast premiere of Millenium II, for fifty-member brass and percussion ensemble, Jazz combo, bluegrass band, gospel choir, solo voices, piano choir, gamelan, boys choir and calliope - Henry Brant and Linda Bouchard, conductors. Goodrich Theater, Fine Arts Center, SUNY at Oneonta, 8:30 p.m. Pre-concert talk by the composer at 7:45. Admission charged (Please see below)

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 14. Lecture/recital on "The Future Flute," by Robert Dick. Room 3, Hodgdon IRC, SUNY at Oneonta, 7:30 p.m. Free admission

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 15. Workshop and Master Class for flutists (others invited as well). Music Circle, Anderson Center for the Arts, Hartwick College. Free admission. (Flutists should bring instruments) 7 pm.

* WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 16. Concert of Spatial Music by Henry Brant, featuring the second performance of Ghost Nets, commissioned and performed by contrabass soloist Lewis Paer; other works featuring trombonist Dan Martin and trumpeter Carleton Clay, with the Catskill Chamber Players and guest artists - Henry Brant and Linda Bouchard, conductors. Goodrich Theater (SUNY), 8:30 p.m. Pre-concert talk by Mr. Brant at 7:45. Admission charged.

* THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 17. Concert featuring Robert Dick, composer and flutist, also including a performance of Angels and Devils, a concerto for flute solo with flute orchestra, by Henry Brant (the composer conducting) and Otto Luening's Sonority Canon for 37 Flutes. Goodrich Theater (SUNY), 8:30 p.m. Pre-concert talk by the composers at 7:45. Admission charged.

*Tickets for the Sunday, Wednesday and Thursday concerts will be sold at the door only.

$6 general admission, $4 senior citizen, $2 students

For additional information, call 607/491-3415

The Festival is presented by the Catskill Conservatory, with the assistance of the New York State Council on the Arts, Meet the Composer, Inc. and Orpheus Music Club, which is funded by the Student Association at SUNY-Oneonta.

PLEASE POST