

5th Annual Amenia World Peace Festival

World Peace Prayer Ceremony Presenting the Flags of All Nations

CELEBRATING THE INTERNATIONAL YEAR FOR TOLERANCE
& THE 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE UNITED NATIONS

International Music • Crafts • Ethnic Food • Speakers

*Join us for this special multi-cultural and interfaith gathering.
Link with us in peace at the same time wherever you are!*

Admission Free

Parking $4

Sunday, August 27, 1995

11:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Amenia/Wassaic, New York

DIRECTIONS: From Rt. 22 in Wassaic, between Dover Plains and Amenia center, turn east on Rt. 105 / Sinpatch Road, go one mile east of Wassaic Developmental Center, turn left on Benton Road, turn right immediately into the entrance.

For more information or to volunteer, call

1-800-PEACELINE

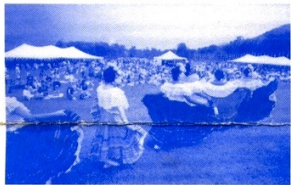

May Peace Prevail on Earth

THE FIFTH ANNUAL AMENIA WORLD PEACE FESTIVAL

Celebrating the International Year for Tolerance
& The 50th Anniversary of the United Nations

CLAY ANDRES

Sunday, August 27, 1995 11:00-5:00

Join Us In Peace!

11 a.m. Gates Open - Native American Blessing at the Medicine Wheel

12:30 p.m. Peace Walk to the Ceremony

1:00 p.m. World Peace Prayer Ceremony on the "Earth Stage"

Join in non-sectarian prayer for peace as the flags of 191 countries are presented.
Greetings from United Nations agencies and Keynote Speaker.

4:45 Closing Spiral Dance

In the Walnut Grove

International Peace Groups, Ethnic Food, Arts and Crafts, Interfaith Pavilion, KidSpace & Peace Pals,
Strolling Musicians and Arts Circle for Peace, Peace Mural Created by Children

Lower Grove Solar Stage

Africa

Rainbow Dance Theatre with Darryl Thomas & Valerie Bergman's dancers
George Mensah Essilfie from Ghana, winner of 1994 Peace Music Initiative

Indonesia

Rockland Angklung Society with Balinese dancer Tjokorda Gde Arsa Artha

India

Carolyn Kay with the Rhythms and Visions of India

Middle East

John Marshall, percussionist

Ukraine

26 Ukrainian Children from near Energodar Nuclear Power plant

United States

Chicago Peace School, Roger the Jester, the World Jazz Ensemble (Erik Lawrence), Holly Nelson, M.C.

Vanaver Caravan on the Earth Stage for the finale

Global Song Circle

Raise your voice in new songs for peace with "Joyful Noise"

May Peace Prevail On Earth

