PAN-ASIAN MUSIC FESTIVAL

April 14, 2002

Nicholas Music Center

PROGRAM

4/14/02

1. Balagaganju

by Lisa Karrer

A processional piece from Ms. Karrer's multimedia work "Woman's Song: the Story of Roro Mendut." Inspired by a traditional Balinese style of percussion parade music of the same name, the piece uses kotekan, interlocking parts.

2. Reconciliation Dance

by Jody Kruskal

Written for a production of Midsummernight's Dream, this arrangement uses the slendro tuning instruments with violin and viola.

3. Pathetan Pelog

by Marnen Laibow-Koser

A double concerto for violin and bonang, the set of small knobbed gongs. Pathetan is the name for loosely rhythmic modal improvisation in Central Javanese classical court music; this piece explores the tonal potential of the pelog or seven-tone scale.

4. Nine-Eleven

This is a collective response by composers in the ensemble to the World Trade disaster. Based on a short song by Barbara Benary, the suite includes song variations, digressions and contrasts by composers Benary, David Demnitz, Daniel Goode, Laura Liben and David Simons.
